General Information:

Mondial produced this superbike in 2001. There have built only 4 racing bikes. Until the production was stopped they built 35 road machines. The engine Honda VTR-1000 has got a Mondial motor management. High-quality materials: Chromolybdenum, carbon, magnesium and titanium frames were used. From our point of view, this is not just a racing machine for collectors who value rare rarities, but also for lovers of motorcycles whose design and technical details have been developed in Italy and want to use the reliabilities of a motor designed in Japan at racing events.
