General Information:

The development of the Benelli Sport Special 125 can be traced back to Giuseppe Benelli, who founded his own company, Motobi Werke, in 1950. For this reason, the Sport Special was originally marketed as Motobi. The combination of a steel frame and pressed steel frame was first introduced with the B44 moped in 1954. In 1971, Benelli Motobi Werke was integrated into the De Tomaso group of companies. Our Sport Special is in very good working order.
