General Information:

Lamborghini SpA is the sole owner of Ducati Motor Holding SpA. It is not only collectors who are delighted when the parent company is honoured with a limited-edition special model. Perhaps Lamborghini SpA will also turn a blind eye if the quarterly results do not quite meet expectations. On the other hand, special editions are a good reason to buy in the long term, particularly if the bike has not been ridden and is nevertheless in a very well-maintained condition. In the short term, the V4 S Lamborghini appeals with its sophisticated technology and breathtaking design.
