General Information:

Jaenicke and Winkelhofen founded the motorcycle manufacturer Wanderer and unveiled the first Wanderer in 1905. The company continued to exist until 1939, when it merged with NSU. In 1929, F. Janecek was granted a licence in Prague to manufacture Wanderer motorcycles with cardan drive. Janecek and Wanderer later merged to form the JAWA brand. Our beautiful museum piece was launched in 1922. The V-twin is fitted with a 3-speed gearbox and is mounted on a double-cradle frame.
