General Information:

In the late 1960s, Floyd Clymer was a business partner of Friedel Münch. The joint venture, led primarily by Floyd Clymer, operated in California, and the so-called 'Clymer Münch' models were successfully sold in the USA at the time for 4,000 dollars. The replica on offer corresponds to the 1968 model year and is referred to as the '2nd series'. Distinguishing features include a narrow rear wheel, a custom-designed front fork, the large brake fin, a Smith rev counter, vintage fittings and indicators at the ends of the handlebars.
