General Information:

The 1969 Milan Motor Show marked a special occasion, as the MV AGUSTA 750 SPORT 4 CILINDRI, designed by engineer Mario Rossi, was unveiled to the public. Eighty units were produced in the first series of this model, and our 750 Sport is one of the first 20 fascinating examples. A total of 1,490 Sport models were produced across three series. Over the past 50 years, the model range has become one of the key cultural icons of the post-war motorcycling era. We are delighted to present our 750 Sport in breathtaking, first-class condition. The engine number definitely matches the chassis number, so we can confirm that it is a ?matching numbers? bike.
